

Call for Applications: Journalists to cover an Agricultural Event in Accra

One of our institutional partners intends to host a major 3-day conference coming off in early May, 2017 in Accra. We are therefore requesting the services of 3 savvy journalists focusing on agricultural reporting to cover the event.

Interested candidates should send their applications and résumé to:

Editor@agricinghana.com

Astute women journalists with agriculture focus are encouraged to apply.

Kindly note that only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Requirements

- Affiliated to a major media outlet in Ghana- either traditional or online news outlet
- Availability for the entire duration of the event
- Submit two writing samples of previous work

Expected Tasks

- Committed to making at least 3 verifiable publications on the event
- Onsite social media reporting during the entire duration of the event.

Benefit

- Professional fee
- Access to all conference days and resources
- Access to dinner
